TULLOCH

Cabernet Sauvignon - 2022

Tulloch Range

Wine Overview

Cabernet Sauvignon, also known as "The King of Reds", is one of the world's most recognisable and widely planted red grape varieties. Originating from Bordeaux, France, it's now grown in nearly every major wine-producing country — including Australia, where it thrives in regions like Coonawarra, Margaret River, and Barossa Valley.
It's known for its bold structure, firm tannins, and black fruit flavours, often with strong ageing potential
