FAMILY CREST

2017 Cabernet Sauvignon

McLAREN VALE

JAMES HALLIDAY WINE COMPANION 2020 - AUGUST 2019 - 91 POINTS

“Old vines, the wine matured in French oak. Perfectly ripe notwithstanding the cool vintage. It’s a tough thing to say, but this is a little too soft to receive higher points, but it’s still enjoyable and a bargain.”

TONI PATERSON - THE REAL REVIEW - 19.05.19 - 93 POINTS

“The integrity of the fruit is the first thing you notice about this wine. Focused, intense and pure is the nose. The palate has bright fruit with excellent density and intensity, and I adore the wine’s composure and harmony. The restrained approach to winemaking allows the regional and varietal characters of the wine show through. Outstanding value. Highly recommended.”

Ranked No 2 - McLaren Vale Cabernet Sauvignon - Buy of the Week

CAMPBELL MATTINSON - THE WINE FRONT - 18.01.19 - 91 POINTS

“Angove put out some ripping wines it has to be said. It has good fruit and a general sturdiness to it. Dust, cloves, boysenberry and blackcurrant flavours, effectively in that order, before herb-flecked tannin sweeps in. Value.”
