2015 Bond Road Chardonnay

COONAWARRA

STEVE LESZCZYNSKI - Q-WINE - 14.08.18

"Coonawarrn has one of the longest ripening seasons for Chardonnay in the world I'm reliably informed. This is a neat find -Coonawarrn ain't just all Cabernet. Tasted at the Coonawarra Roadshow, I had to do a double take when told the price. Clever stuff. Some quick notes on the run: Rich, delicate, peachy and white fleshed stonefruit, creamy drive, raw cashews, licks of vanilla and green apple. Yes yes' ."

JAMES HALLIDAY 2018 WINE COMPANION - AUGUST 2017 - 90 POINTS

"This is a racy, light to mid-weighted tangy chardonnay, clothed in a cloak of stark juxtaposition to the face of the stable's extremely dry reds. Fully barrel fermented with partial malolactic applied, this jitterbug of energy beams white peach, melon and nectarine across a laser of vibrant acidity, etched at the seams with vanillin oak across a core of curd and cashew, the virtues of some handy lees work."
